Content Count Joined Last visited Community Reputation About David David wrote: Showing Statistics for Posts: 79 Last Post: 3 minutes ago Are there any other cases of this password cracker having been used by attackers? Is it worth keeping this tool and adding it to a deep search? Yes, there are a number of "so called" password hackers that are using this. I believe that this should be stopped. I do not know who this developer is, but I believe that software should be given to the developer and an explanation of why this is being used. Wouldn't it be better if all passwords were passworded? That would at least be an improvement. Thank you tavisout didn't write: Plec cracked the password. Password: Plec! Plec is a nice tool.
